

Gaining Public Liability & Professional Indemnity Insurance For Peaceful Kids & Peaceful Parents Licences

It is up to individuals to have a conversation with their insurer to make sure they are aware of what work you are doing so you have the right cover. The information below is given just a guide and a starting point and Wellbeing For Kids Pty. Ltd. takes no responsibility for individuals or businesses gaining their own insurance or the quality of the insurance.

As everyone's qualifications are different, it is up to the individual to source the correct cover that reflects the work you are planning to do and the qualifications that you have.

Below are some possible companies that could provide both Professional Indemnity and Public Liability insurance:

<https://www.myiict.com/>

<https://www.gio.com.au/business-insurance/professionals/indemnity.html>

<http://www.brooklynunderwriting.com.au>

<https://www.fentongreen.com.au>

<https://business-insurance.aon.com.au>

IICT Insurance

IICT covers all the aspects of the Peaceful Kids and Peaceful Parents programs as Wellbeing For Kids is an approved provider.

It is essential that your insurance covers the activities you will be doing in the Peaceful Kids, Peaceful Parents, Peaceful Teens and/or Chill Out sessions which includes Mindfulness as well as positive psychology or wellbeing sessions with children. It is not enough to just have 'Mindfulness' on your insurance. It is essential that it is stated you will be working with children.

The following examples are not advice, however just a guide to start your conversation with your insurance provider.

Possible titles to be covered depending on the insurer and how they classify the running of the Peaceful Kids workshops, the cover could be called:

- Meditation / Mindfulness Teacher
- Wellbeing practitioner
- Child practitioner
- Education Consultancy / Education Workshop Consultant
- Allied Health Mindfulness Practitioner
- Mindfulness Teacher for children and adults

Or depending on the company you may need to select a range of modalities that are suitable to what you are doing, and these are just some examples below.

- Meditation / Mindfulness
- Positive Psychology
- Children's Wellbeing Courses
- Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction
- Personal Development Teacher
- Youth Work
- Mindfulness for children and teens
- Mindfulness Therapy / Mindfulness Based Approaches